KENNETH K. LAM/STAFF

HAVING A BALL

Sana Singh, from left, Joanna Ma, Justin St. Marie and about 30 other Constellation Energy employees from seven states volunteer with the nonprofit group Coastal Conservation Association's Habitat Program to make hollow concrete balls to form artificial reef balls that will eventually be deployed in the Chesapeake Bay.